

Volume 20
Issue 1
2026

Care in Medicine

Talib Shah

This piece was created using digital art and demonstrates the importance of care in medicine. The doctor is holding the patient and being delicate, showing its importance in the field. The lungs are glowing to bring emphasis on the organ being examined.

About the Author

Talib Shah is an American illustrator, designer, and poet from New York with an interest in the intersection of art, medicine, and technology. Through digital media and visual story telling, his work explores healthcare, human connection, and creativity. Email: talibshahofficial@gmail.com